Comment: The following report, originating from the same source as that of [REDACTED], tends to reconcile and explain apparently contradictory information concerning stoppage of exports from the Russian Zone of Germany to Yugoslavia.)

Exports to Yugoslavia from the Russian Zone were interrupted about 1 September 1948. The SMA has instructed export firms and manufacturers to stop certain specified shipments, not identified. No general directive was issued, however, and since then some shipments have been passed. The result is a considerable reduction in exports to Yugoslavia, but not a complete stoppage.
